Meditation & Reflection Space

This neutral space on the 3rd floor of Beeghly Library is open to all students, staff, faculty, and visitors of Ohio Wesleyan University whenever the floor is open. It is a quiet place for you to reflect, meditate, pray, or just enjoy a few peaceful moments to unplug and melt away stress. We encourage visitors to refrain from extended stay, eating, drinking, talking, sleeping, or using electronics.

Guidelines

- Silence and mutual respect are expected at all times.
- Use of the space is on a first-come basis. Please be respectful of others desiring to use the space and refrain from extended stay.
- Use of the space is only for quiet meditation, prayer, or silent reflection. Please do not use this room as a lounge, study room, or meeting room.
- This is a quiet space. Cell phones should be on silent.
- With respect for all, we request that footwear be removed, if possible. Shoe storage is offered for your convenience.
- Food and beverages are discouraged.
- Signage and other advertising may only be posted on designated bulletin and white boards.
- Candles, burning oils, incense, or any other flammable items are not permitted.
- Please do not remove anything from this space.
- Please leave the space in the same condition as it was prior to use.

This is a pilot project based upon student suggestions and driven by a collaboration between the Chaplain’s Office and OWU Libraries. Please direct questions to: libraries@owu.edu.

Failure to comply with the guidelines is a violation of OWU’s Code of Conduct Community Standards and Policies and may result in loss of library privileges and/or disciplinary action.
