Acquisition Information

Materials in this collection were originally located at the Seybert United Methodist Church, location of the Seybert Museum and Archives for 42 years. Following the 2017 death of Bill Drown, historian of Seybert UMC and caretaker of the Seybert Museum and Archives, Seybert UMC decided that the church no longer had space to house the archival and museum collection dealing with the history of the Evangelical Church. The church petitioned the East Ohio Commission on Archives & History to remove artifacts, books and paper archives to a new location. The Trustees of the East Ohio Conference approved the move, empowering Carol Holliger and the East Ohio Commission to redistribute the collection. Carol Holliger made several trips to Seybert UMC in order to select material relative to Ohio Evangelical/EUB history for the Archives of Ohio United Methodism (AOUM). In general, documents, manuscripts, and photographs relating to the Evangelical Church in Ohio were transferred to AOUM. Bishop Seybert’s “relics” were transferred to the EUB Heritage Center at United Theological Seminary in Dayton, with the exception of the Seybert wagon and clock, which will remain at Seybert UMC (still owned by East Ohio Conference). Artifacts directly related to the history of the Ohio Evangelical Church were moved to AOUM. Other artifacts (tools, furniture, lanterns, communion sets, etc.) were offered to Lyme Village and antique dealers. Books located in the “library” of the Seybert Museum were examined by Carol Holliger and Sarah Brooks Blair (director of library at United Theological Seminary). Needed publications were moved to either AOUM or UTS. The remaining books were sold to William Snider, book dealer, with the approval of the East Ohio Conference. Proceeds from the sale went to the Conference.

In 1989, the daughters of Dr. Leedy legally transferred their father’s collection to the Bishop Seybert Museum at Bellevue, and the East Ohio Conference Archives Center at Baldwin Wallace College, both operated under the aegis of the East Ohio Commission on Archives and History.

Material from the Seybert Museum and Archives is also housed at the Detterman Log Church in Lyme Village. Ownership of this material (with the exception of the large framed steel engravings of Seybert & Albright) has been transferred to Lyme Village.

Processing Information

The processing, arrangement, and description of the Roy B. Leedy Collection were completed by Carol Holliger in October of 2018.
Biographical/Historical Information

Roy B. Leedy’s memoir, as printed in the 1981 Journal of the East Ohio UMC Conference, p. 296

ROY B. LEEDY
February 13, 1883 – January 2, 1981

Roy Benton Leedy was born February 13, 1883, the son of Levi B. and Nancy Kanaga Leedy, in Richland County, Ohio. While Roy was still a young boy, the family moved to Fremont, Ohio. Roy graduated from Fremont High School, Northwestern Academy (now North Central College), and from Evangelical Theological Seminary. In 1912 he married Rose V. Voight, and to this union three daughters were born. After Rose’s death, Roy married Margaret Koepnick Faust in 1933.

Roy received his license to preach in 1907 and received full membership in the Ohio Conference of the Evangelical Church in 1913. He started his ministry at Bettsville, and served subsequently the following pastorates: Akron, Kenmore; Marion, Salem; Flat Rock; Cedar Hill; Gibsonburg; Huron; Carey; Napoleon; Perrysburg; Green Springs; Warren, Grace. Through most of those years he was a member of the Conference Chorus.

Simultaneously with his beginning ministerial career, Roy became aware of the value and necessity of preserving the church’s history in work and artifact. To this end he dedicated his time and energy for more than 70 years. He served as secretary of the General Historical Society of the Evangelical Church, and for 35 years as historian of the Ohio Conference. Throughout his lifetime he was frequently asked to give addresses on a variety of historical subjects. He wrote numerous articles for church publications with more than half on topics unrelated to history! After his retirement in 1951 to Lakeside, Ohio, he wrote a comprehensive history, The Evangelical Church in Ohio, which was published in 1959. With this task completed, he continued to work in arranging historical exhibits and classifying books, pictures, and miscellaneous historical data. Because of his tireless and persistent efforts, priceless manuscripts and books have been preserved. His collections are housed in libraries at Camp Junaluska, North Carolina, at Baldwin-Wallace College, at Seybert Memorial Church in Bellevue, Ohio, at Historic Lyme Village in Bellevue, and at the Ohio Historical Center, Columbus, Ohio.

In recognition of his scholarly research and his preservation of valuable historical materials, Baldwin-Wallace College conferred on Roy and honorary Doctor of Divinity degree. Roy was a steadfast minister of the Gospel, and his quiet, kindly manner was an inspiration to those whose lives he touched.

Roy died on January 2, 1981 at the Elyria Home in Elyria, Ohio. His memorial service was held January 6, 1981 at the Lakeside Church, Lakeside, Ohio with Daniel Lansell and L. Mark George officiating. Interment was at Oakwood Cemetery, Fremont, Ohio. Roy is survived by his wife, by his three daughters, Rosabel M. McGinty, Dorine E. Drake and Omeda Helen McCune; by five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.
Scope and Content

The collection consists of church files, people files, photographs, subject files, photographs, artifacts, and manuscripts collected by Dr. Roy B. Leedy, long time historian of the Ohio Conference of the Evangelical Association/Church. Bishop John Seybert was elected as the second bishop of the Evangelical Association in 1838. He played a significant role in the history of the Ohio Conference. Seybert died in Bellevue, Ohio on January 4, 1860, and is buried at the cemetery in Flat Rock, now known as the Bishop Seybert Cemetery.

Recognizing the significance of Bishop Seybert to the Ohio area, and anxious to create a history of the Evangelical Association in Ohio, Rev. Roy B. Leedy began collecting historical items around 1916, with the goal of publishing a history of the Ohio Conference of the Evangelical Association (later Ohio Conference of the Evangelical Church).

Over the years, Leedy made several attempts to find a permanent home for his collection of material. His original idea was to locate the collection at the Old Stone Church in Flat Rock, to be known as the Bishop Seybert Memorial. At the time, the collection was temporarily housed at the Flat Rock Children’s Home. Efforts to establish the Memorial at the Old Stone Church in the 1940’s were not successful. The collection (or parts thereof) has lived at several locations – Flat Rock Children’s Home, Linwood Park, Lakeside, and the Evangelical Seminary at Naperville.

Leedy’s book, The Evangelical Church in Ohio, was published in 1959. The research for this book took place over several decades.

In 1975, Roy B. Leedy’s collection was moved to the Seybert Memorial United Methodist Church in Bellevue, Ohio, dedicated as the Bishop Seybert Museum and Archives.

Prior to his death, Leedy donated a great deal of material to outside repositories. There are currently named collections of his material at the General Commission on Archives & History in Madison, NJ, The Library of Congress & The Center for Archival Collections at Bowling Green State University.

Now housed here at AOUM are 41 manuscript boxes and four filing cabinets filled with the supporting research for Leedy’s book, precious manuscripts, letters and journals, photographs, panoramic photos, baptismal certificates of early Evangelical members in Ohio, artifacts, etc.

Now housed at the EUB Heritage Center (United Theological Seminary), are the “relics” belonging to Bishop John Seybert.

In sum, the collection contains Roy B. Leedy’s supporting research material on the people, churches, and events related to the history of the Evangelical Association/Evangelical Church in Ohio, and one-of-a kind manuscripts, letters, documents related to the life of Bishop John Seybert and the early pioneers of the Evangelical Association in Ohio.
